California Health Care Programs - 2013
Serving Low to Moderate Income Families

Several low-cost, subsidized health care programs for children are available to low to moderate income families. Most programs use the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) chart below in determining financial eligibility. To see if your children are eligible contact the health program or get help from a certified application assistant listed on the back of this flyer.

Varios programas de cuidado de salud de bajos costos para niños son disponibles para familias de ingresos bajos a moderados. La mayoría de estos programas siguen el guía de los ingresos (Federal Poverty Guidelines o FPG) para determinar elegibilidad. Para ver si sus niños son eligibles, llame el programa de salud o obtenga ayuda de un asistente de aplicaciónes en la lista al otro lado.
