SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Sheriff's detectives have arrested two Loomis boys for burglarizing the Stone Tree Liquor and Deli in Loomis early Sunday morning.

The boys, ages 15 and 17, were arrested for breaking into the liquor store on Taylor Road at 1:40 Sunday morning. Their actions were captured on videotape as they broke the glass front doors, entered the store and took cigarettes and alcohol. A deputy who spoke with the boys in the area of the store earlier that evening recognized them in the video.

Detectives followed up on leads, which led to the arrests. They were booked at the Placer County Juvenile Hall in Auburn.

Detectives are still looking for the suspects who broke into the Stone Tree Liquor and Deli and stole the store's safe on Jan. 26. Video of that crime can be found at the Sheriff's Facebook page, http://www.facebook.com/PlacerSheriff. Anyone with information on the suspects or the burglary is asked to contact Detective Ryan West at 916-652-2423.

Anyone wishing to remain anonymous and be eligible for a cash reward is asked to call Placer County Crime Stoppers at 1-800-923-8191. Or go to Placer County Crime Stoppers website at www.placercrimestoppers.com and report anonymous tips online. All tips are confidential and information leading to an arrest or arrests can earn a reward of up to $1,000.
