Census jobs available

Published Tuesday, Feb. 16, 2010

The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting thousands of temporary workers in the greater Sacramento area to help with the 2010 population count.

Key facts:

- Hiring will begin in March and continue into April.
- Employees will be paid while undergoing training.
- Work will range from part time to full time and last 75 to 90 days.
- Field staff will receive automobile reimbursement of 50 cents a mile.
- Hours for field staff are flexible but may include nights and weekends.

What's available:

- Pay for census takers – those who visit homes to help complete the count – will be $15 an hour.
- Other hiring will include office clerks at $11.25 an hour.
- Crew leader assistants will receive $15 an hour.
- Crew leaders will receive $16.50.
- Field operations supervisors will receive $18.

How to apply:

- Call the Census Bureau's toll-free number, (866) 861-2010, and enter your ZIP code to be routed to the closest office.

- Applicants must pass a basic multiple-choice skills test (retake the test as often as desired) and undergo an FBI background check.
- For more information, visit: www.2010.census.gov and choose Job Seekers.

Why do a census?

Population data guide how more than $400 billion in federal funds is distributed yearly to hospitals, job training centers, schools, public works projects, senior centers, emergency services and the like. Undercounts mean fewer dollars for a given community.

Area Census Bureau offices:

Each office will hire 800 to 1,200 workers. Actual hiring will depend on the rate of voluntary mailed responses to the census survey.
