The Board of Supervisors is being asked to approve appropriations to help fund The Salvation Army's Feed the Hungry of Auburn program. For the last nineteen years, the Feed the Hungry program has participated in the autumn ritual of purchasing 4-H livestock animals at the Gold Country Fair. The purchase of these animals provides one of the few sources of protein for the The Salvation Army's food closet. Last year, The Salvation Army of Auburn provided over 100,000 meals to people in our community from their food closet. The funds designated for the program will assist with purchasing and processing the livestock animals which will then be donated to The Salvation Army of Auburn's food closet.
