Placer County Parks Commission
John Ramirez

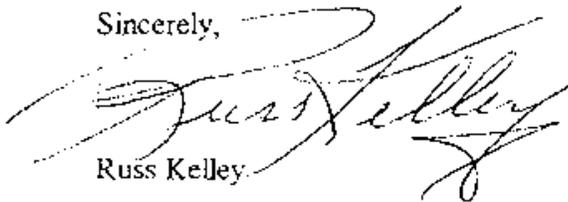

Dear John:

As you know I will be taking office as a Loomis Town Council member. I regret to inform you that per the advice of County Council, I cannot continue as a Placer County Parks Commissioner. As a parks commissioner that has served every supervisor since the my original appointment by Supervisor Mike Lee, I have had a great experience helping to further the county parks and the commitment to provide the excellent parks system that we have in place.

I wish to thank the county staff for their dedication and commitment to making the time spent productive and positive. They have been some of the best individuals that I have ever worked with. It is these people that make it easier for me to move on to the Loomis Town Council. Our county is better for having such a great county staff and their commitment to excellence.

A special thank you to you, John, and the rest of the commissioners. I have truly enjoyed all the years I have worked with all of you.

Sincerely,

Russ Kelley
