The Roseville Police Department has a long history of pride and excellence. In 2008 we would like to honor the memory of Police Officers killed in the line of duty throughout the United States. Every two years our Honor Guard Team celebrates the fallen American heroes who made this world of ours a better place to live at the Washington D.C. National Law Enforcement Memorial week May 11-17, 2008.

The Roseville Police Department Honor Guard participates in a number of activities during the National Law Enforcement Memorial Week such as the Candlelight Vigil, National Peace Officers' Memorial Day Services, Wreath laying Ceremony and others throughout the week. It is an honor to represent the city of Roseville at this event.

The Roseville Police Officers Association (RPOA) donates $1,500 to assist the Honor Guard team, which helps but does not cover all the $7,500 in expenses. We would appreciate your support. If you would like to assist us please make a donation made out to the RPOA c/o the Honor Guard and mail it to the address above. If you have any questions please give me a call. Tax ID# 04-3604988.

Thanks for your consideration!
