Approve appropriation of $250 in Revenue Sharing monies to The Forgotten Soldier Program for their Veteran's Pavilion and Community Garden, as requested by Supervisor Holmes ($250).

The Board of Supervisors is being asked to approve appropriations for The Forgotten Soldier Program for their Veteran's Pavilion and Community Garden. The Veteran's Pavilion and Community Garden project was started approximately four years ago when one of the Veterans had a vision of healing taking place between the Veterans and the Community by working together in the garden. The donation of both supplies and money has gone toward the construction of the Community Garden and the Pavilion, with most of the work being done through volunteer man power. Unfortunately there was not enough money to complete the garden or the roofing on the Pavilion. Funding received will be used to complete the Community Garden, finish the wheel chair ramp, and complete the roofing on the Pavilion.

FISCAL IMPACT

Funds are available in the Revenue Sharing budget.
