The Board of Supervisors is being asked to approve appropriations to help support the Placer Land Trust's Annual Placer Conservator Award Ceremony, honoring Lincoln's Mark Fowler, to be held on October 22nd. Since inception in 1991, the Placer Land Trust has evolved into a premiere non-profit organization protecting Placer County's wide open wonders, natural playgrounds, and the quality of life for current and future generations. Each year Placer Land Trust presents the Placer Conservator Award to an individual, or organization that enriches the quality of life in Placer County through resource conservation. This year's honoree at the award ceremony is Mark Fowler, a former teacher at Lincoln High School who helped enhance agricultural learning in the school curriculum by creating their farm program. Mark Fowler has many years of community service and is actively involved in various local organizations. The Revenue Sharing funding received will help defray costs for the Annual Placer Conservator Award Ceremony. Proceeds from the event go directly toward Placer Land Trust's efforts to work with willing landowners and conservation partners, including Placer County, to permanently protect natural and agricultural land in Placer County.
