

No Cost Cat Adoptions at Placer County Animal Shelter Extended

Cat adoption rebates have been extended through the month of November at the Placer County Animal Shelter in Auburn through the Rebates for Rescues program. Adopt an adult cat one year or older from the Placer County Animal Shelter and receive the full cost of the adoption back from the Placer SPCA Rebates for Rescues program. This program has been extended through November by the Placer SPCA to help encourage cat adoptions at the Placer County Animal Shelter.

To help celebrate the cat adoption program and spotlight the available cats at the shelter, A New Hope Animal Foundation is also hosting a Free Cupcakes and Cats Adoptathon Palooza, Saturday, November 20 from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm at the animal shelter in Auburn at 11251 B Avenue. Cupcakes and hot chocolate will be provided for all shelter visitors and goodie bags with home made cat scarves will be given to all cat adopters.

Mike Winters, Program Manager, Placer County Animal Services said, "I'm thrilled that the program has been extended and excited about the Cupcakes and Cats Adoption event. We have amazing cats waiting for loving homes at the shelter and we're anxious to have the public come and meet them and adopt a new family member."

Leilani Vierra, CEO of the Placer SPCA, and Lynn Howe, founder of A New Hope Animal Foundation agree that both organizations are committed to working toward a day when all adoptable companion animals in Placer County have loving homes
