FACILITY SERVICES - Received an update on the Comprehensive Facilities Master Plan.

March 22, 2011
COUNTY EXECUTIVE/REVENUE SHARING - Considered background information regarding Placer County Revenue Sharing and discussion of program alternatives. Supervisor Duran and Supervisor Montgomery supported a 12 month moratorium and a review of process and need. Supervisor Holmes supported each Supervisor having a choice of how to distribute funds. Chairman Weygandt supported a review of the process and possible decrease in the dollar amount. Staff to come back with recommendations as to a process that could achieve maintaining the system in some concept. Walley Remlin, President of the Placer County Taxpayers, supported a moratorium on the Revenue Sharing Program.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE/OTHER POST EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS - Received a report from the County Executive Office regarding Other Post Employment Benefits as of June 30, 2011.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE/FY 2011-2012 BUDGET WORKSHOP SERIES:

a. Received a report regarding budget and economic challenges in the County Road Fund, appropriations in the Community Development Resource Agency and transportation programs for the Fiscal Year 2011/12. Supervisor Montgomery requested land use be reviewed in Tahoe. There are not many places to contain the plowed snow.

b. Received a report regarding budget and economic challenges to Placer County Fire Protection Services for Fiscal Year 2011/12. Staff to complete analyses to further define implications of the options available; present options to Municipal Advisory Councils; and return to the Board with information and recommendations.

c. Received a report regarding budget and economic challenges in the Public Safety Fund Budgets and Potential Impacts from the State Budget and Realignment Proposals in the Fiscal Year 2011/12. Supervisor Montgomery encouraged all to work at getting this matter on a ballot for the people to vote. She requested staff review realignment contracts with the cities to possibly amend because the main impact will be from city residents. She requested a review of more cost saving measures for example salary caps, higher employee costs for higher wage earners, and a cap on retirement for high wage earners. Supervisor Duran encouraged clarity, cooperation, open minds, and for all options to be considered. Staff directed to continue to track realignment discussions, continue planning efforts with a full Criminal Justice Policy Committee; define offender populations that will be realigned to us; conduct a system wide needs assessment to quantify what we would need system wide to make realignment as successful as possible; develop options and funding mechanisms; and return back to the Board for further discussion and direction.

d. Accepted a summary report on budget and operational challenges. Staff directed to return April 5, 2011 with 3 fiscal/staffing scenarios and resource options; discuss financial policies in the context of FY 2011-12; affirm current policy direction; and direction of FY 2011-12 proposed budget.
