

The Mental Health Court/Conditional Release Program (CONREP) is a collaboration between Placer County's Adult System of Care, Probation, and Superior Court departments. Individuals whose mental illness was a contributing factor in their crime are offered mental health services and participation in community treatment.