

PLACER COUNTY'S TREATMENT APPROACH

By meeting you where you are, together we can determine where you'd like to go.

Our services are based on your needs. Staff will meet you where you are in your recovery process and support you on the journey from addiction to wellness.

Some people may not believe they have a substance use problem while others know they have a problem but are not sure what to do about it. Regardless of where you are on that continuum, staff will work with you to help you get the support you need. Treatment can begin at any point of this journey.

Whether you are court referred, feel pressured by friends or family, or are coming voluntarily, you will be referred to treatment tailored to meet your individual needs. You will be welcomed and treated with respect and compassion. Placer County staff and our providers look forward to helping you with your recovery journey.

Pregnant/parenting substance users and pregnant/parenting IV drug users have referral/admission priority to services and treatment.
