

TAX CREDIT SECTION 42 CRITERIA FOR RESIDENCY RESIDENT SCREENING AND SELECTION PROCESS

CAMBRIDGE
real estate services

Thank you for applying to live at our community. This criteria is provided to you to define the process we use to select our residents. Cambridge Real Estate Services is an Equal Housing Opportunity provider, and seeks to process all applicants in a fair and consistent manner.

OCCUPANCY POLICY

1. Occupancy is based on the number of bedrooms in a unit. A bedroom is defined as a habitable space within the premises that is used primarily for sleeping, with at least one window and a closet space for clothing.
2. Two persons are allowed per bedroom plus one additional occupant will be allowed for the apartment.
3. In addition to maximum occupancy guidelines, certain communities which have received funding from the HOME program may require minimum occupancy of 1 person for a one bedroom; 2 persons for a two bedroom; 4 persons for a three bedroom; and, 6 persons for a four bedroom apartment. Exceptions may be granted based on demonstrated need and following approval by government agencies and/or their designated program compliance administrators. Contact the site manager for further information regarding program restrictions and exceptions.
4. In order to provide housing to the greatest number of qualified individuals and comply with state and federal regulations, Cambridge Real Estate Services reserves the right to follow HUD, Rural Development and Tax Credit program guidelines designed to encourage the optimal utilization of housing. This may require that Cambridge declines applications in cases where the minimum number of occupants is less than one individual per bedroom for the apartment selected. This condition shall apply throughout the entire term of tenancy and may, if violated, require that the tenant vacate the premises following the legally required procedures for termination or, if all other conditions of residency continue to be met, relocate within the community (upon re-screening) to the next available apartment of appropriate size upon written notification from the landlord.
