

SPECIAL VACANCY NOTICE:

Placer County Accepting Applications to Fill One Vacant Seat on Housing Taskforce

Initial Posting Date: February 10, 2022

The County is accepting applications to fill the unexpired term on Seat 6 of the Housing Development Advisory Taskforce, representing attorneys with housing/land use experience. The term expires 6/30/2023. Applications will be accepted until the seat is filled. The application can be accessed on the Housing Taskforce webpage, found at: <https://www.placer.ca.gov/7122/Housing-Development-Advisory-Taskforce>.

The Housing Development Advisory Taskforce was established in 2021 and is comprised of nine volunteer community members with various expertise in housing who understand the unique housing needs of the Placer region. The taskforce provides support to the Placer County Board of Supervisors to help identify and move forward affordable housing projects in the county.

If you are an attorney with housing/land use experience, consider joining the Housing Development Advisory Taskforce today!
