Housing Programs

The Adult System of Care of Placer County manages several housing programs designed to house individuals who have a diagnosed mental illness, are homeless, and are residents of Placer County. In an effort to support individuals with different housing needs, The Adult System of Care manages a Transitional Housing Program, two Permanent Supportive Housing Projects, and two HUD Subsidized Permanent Supportive Housing Programs.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING PROGRAM

Placer County Adult System of Care currently works in collaboration with the Alliance for the Mentally Ill Housing, AMIH, to provide a safe, group living environment with supportive services, to participants who are living with a mental illness. The Housing Collaborative has homes located in Auburn, Rocklin, and Roseville. Participants reside in a group living environment and participate in both independent and group activities that promote independent living and self-sufficiency. For additional information on this program and program fees please call (530)889-7263

PERMANENT SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

The Adult System of Care has two permanent housing projects:

- Timberline
- Placer Street

Timberline is shared living, in which 5 participants reside in a single family home. Participants have a private bedroom and share the main living areas.

Placer Street is shared living in a complex of 6 condominium style units; 2 master bedrooms/ bath in each unit along with shared living space.

The Adult System of Care manages two Federally Funded HUD Supportive Housing Programs :

- The Adult System of Care Permanent Supportive Housing Program (APSH)
- Shelter Plus Care

Adult system of Care Permanent Supportive Housing Program (APSH) and Shelter Plus Care are funded by HUD. Participants of these two programs pay up to 30% of their income towards their rent with the programs paying the difference in a rental subsidy. These programs are designed to assist people maintain permanent housing by providing supportive services geared towards self-sufficiency. Testimonials

“If it wasn’t for Welcome Home (AMIH), I would have been homeless when I was released from the hospital. It not only sheltered me, but afforded me with the life skills I needed to become an independent and productive person in society.”

“Being on the APSH program allowed me to focus on my recovery for both my mental illness and my addictions. The staff worked with me to improve my employment skills and build my confidence. I no longer have to worry about being homeless.”
