ACTION REQUESTED

Approve and present a Resolution honoring David Altman for his many years of service in Health and Human Services Environmental Health and to the citizens of Placer County.

BACKGROUND

David Altman is retiring from the County of Placer Health and Human Services, Environmental Health Services Division after providing over 26 years of service. He worked within Placer County's Environmental Health Division initially as a Sanitarian III, as a generalist on the Consumer Protection Team, and now is retiring as an Associate Registered Environmental Health Specialist and as the lead staff member of the Solid Waste Local Enforcement Agency program. During his employment with Placer County, David Altman has shown his continued dedication and interest in the Environmental Health field by serving as President of the California Environmental Health Association, Chair of the North Central Local Enforcement Agency Round Table, and as Co-Vice-Chair of the Enforcement Advisory Counsel for the Integrated Waste Management Board. Mr. Altman has conducted himself in a professional manner, showing pride and commitment to his job, the field of Environmental Health, the protection of the public's health, and the citizens of Placer County in his many assignments over the years.
