Lynn Grilli, Consultant/Trainer – The Dementia Whisperers Inc.

The Dementia Whisperers

With Lynn's extensive knowledge, acquired during more than thirty years of study and practice, she offers a unique approach to her Caregiver Stress Management Training. Her understanding of the link between the specifics of caregiver stress and physical well being has enabled her to develop effective, well designed programs which focus on the many personal issues you may be facing as a professional or family caregiver. With her warm sense of humor and calming presence she presents information to you in a way that is comforting, as well as entertaining and enjoyable.

Lynn is gifted in communication using multi-sensory feeling and relaxation triggers that enable you to enjoy and share in feelings of happiness, peace, joy and love. Her work with Inner Child and Regression therapy has given her insights and skills that augment her unique approach to working with adults stricken with dementia. With an almost magical approach to your needs as a caregiver, you will gain knowledge about the need to care for yourself and manage the stressors in your life so you can remain in a place of compassion, love and acceptance.

These programs have been reviewed and approved by a wide audience of family and professional caregivers, and considered to be a model for caregivers everywhere as some of the most effective and well thought out tools available today.

Lynn is certification in both Clinical and Medical Hypnotherapy from the Palo Alto School of Hypnotherapy, as well as, certifications in Inner Child and Regression Therapy, is a Time Line Therapy™ Practitioner and a Reiki Master. Lynn is a member of the American Association of Professional Hypnotherapists and Auburn Daybreak Rotary.
