Dear Melanie,

The purpose of this letter is to announce my resignation from my position as director for the Placer County Historical Advisory Board effective two weeks from this date.

This was not an easy decision to make, on my part. The past two years have been very rewarding and I've enjoyed being a part of this team. Unfortunately due to my health, it would be of better interest for me and the society to elect a new director.

Thank you again for allowing me to have had the opportunity to be a member of this society, and if I can be of any assistance during this transition, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Michael Bryant
