In the past three years this event has drawn an average of fifteen thousand people to the downtown business district of Lincoln with the primary purpose of raising money for kids programs, but it also brings people to downtown Lincoln, which turns into dollars for the local merchants. In the past money raised from this event has been given to the Police Activities League and the Lincoln Rifle Club (Junior Division) and many youth groups in the city of Lincoln. The funds designated towards this annual event will benefit kids programs in the city of Lincoln.
